

Welcome to McKinsey

You like solving challenging problems that bring real change?

Meet our consultants and learn more about McKinsey as well as the career options we offer in our event for the National Technical University of Athens (date: Thursday, February 18, 2016 at 4pm / location: center of Athens).

If you are an N.T.U.A. student in your 3rd/4th/5th year of your studies with strong academic credentials, or a recent alumni, and are excited to learn more about management consulting, we would like to hear from you!
